

UAMS Academic Calendar

Academic Year 2025-2026

Publication Date: March 16, 2025

Calendar Information

- UAMS operates on multiple academic term and session calendars across programs. Standard UAMS terms and sessions are included in the “UAMS Regular Terms” section below. Programs not listed separately below follow the Regular Terms for their respective colleges.
- Summer 2025 is part of the 2024-2025 academic year, but is included here for reference.
- UAMS Census Date is the 11th day of classes for fall/spring terms, and is the 5th day for the summer term. It is calculated based on the UAMS Official Term Dates.
- Additional notes are found below each college section where identified with an asterisk (*). For cohort-based programs, follow the admit/graduation terms to identify the appropriate cohort term and session dates.
